Welcome

On behalf of our employees, board members, and clients, thank you for your interest in volunteering with us at Catholic Charities of Dallas. Your presence provides a positive impact upon the organization and the individuals we serve. Because of you, we are able to change the lives of tens of thousands of individuals each year.

We are proud and thankful to have had more than 4,000 volunteers who contributed their time and talents to our organization last year. Each volunteer, whether they serve a single day or once a week – touches the lives of clients that rely on us for comfort and assistance every year.

Volunteering is a two-way street. We hope that you will receive as much from this experience as you give. In this sense, it is vital that those who receive the benefits of your volunteer efforts should not feel indebted to you. The volunteer relationship is an area where the dignities of both volunteer and client are primary. How we give is as important as what we give.

This booklet is your map as you begin your journey of discovery about volunteer services with Catholic Charities of Dallas. We hope it will answer any questions you may have about the volunteer process, policies and procedures.

The Volunteer Coordinator and Program Managers/Supervisors are here to support you in your efforts at Catholic Charities of Dallas. Please feel free to call the Volunteer Coordinator at 214-520-6590.

Thank you for your passion and commitment to Catholic Charities of Dallas, and being part of our community of partners...

Providing help. Changing Lives...for over 120 years.

We look forward to having you on our team!

MISSION, VALUES & COMMITMENT

Mission Statement

Motivated by the love and teachings of Jesus Christ, Catholic Charities of Dallas serves, advocates for and empowers people in need regardless of race, religion, age, gender or nationality, and calls the community to action.

Value Statement

Rooted deeply in the teachings of Jesus Christ and Catholic Social Teaching to serve each other, our services extend to the ministries of the parishes throughout the distinct and diverse community of the Diocese of Dallas. In pursuing our mission, these values guide our relationships with stakeholders, including donors, volunteers, agencies, employees, clients and the community we serve. We value:

- Compassion – For our clients, our partners and among ourselves. We value the joy of service by treating each person with dignity, respect and compassion while calling on others to do the same. Under Catholic Social Teaching and Catholic Social Justice, every person has the right to be respected and treated with dignity benefitting a child of God.
- Performance and Accountability – the way we approach each task. Under Catholic Social Teaching, we are expected to act with professionalism and commitment. We represent the Parishioners of the Diocese of Dallas and we act accordingly, with a commitment to the “Best, Getting Better.”

Commitment

We passionately join forces with Catholic Charities USA, the Texas Catholic Conference and our sister Catholic Charities in Texas, the Chancery, parishes of the Diocese and other community social services partner agencies as we continue to lead the charge in North Texas to cut poverty and the destructive forces it creates in the family and community at large.

Our motto encompasses both mission and vision – defining our daily work and laying out our future: Providing Help...Changing Lives...for over 123 years.

HISTORIC OVERVIEW

Catholic Charities of Dallas (CCD) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, a United Way partner agency and is accredited by the Council on Accreditation. Our accredited status further attests to our agency's values meeting the highest standards to deliver the best quality of services to the clients we serve.

Catholic Charities of Dallas has provided over 120 years of service to families and individuals in need, tracing its origin to the first diocesan orphanage, St. Joseph Home, which began in 1891.

Catholic Charities of Dallas was formally established in March of 1941 by the joining of the diocesan orphanages – Dunne Memorial Home for Boys and the St. Joseph's Home for Girls, the Catholic Home Welfare Service, the Marillac Free Clinic and Social Center as well as Mount St. Michael's. In 1997, CCD was officially separately incorporated from the Diocese of Dallas.

Catholic Charities of Dallas provides services through four directorates:

- Children, Family & Senior Services (CFS)
- Immigration and Legal Services (ILS)
- Refugee Services (RS)
- Financial Stability & Career Services (FSC)

ABOUT THIS HANDBOOK

This handbook provides general information you need to know about the policies, practices and responsibilities of Catholic Charities of Dallas.

The provisions of this handbook are only general guidelines. Nothing in this handbook establishes a contract, or any particular terms, conditions or duration of volunteering between you and Catholic Charities of Dallas. Because CCD is a dynamic organization, this handbook is not the full and complete official statement of organizational policies. When appropriate, CCD may deviate from or make exceptions to particular provisions stated here. This handbook and the policies described within are subject to change at the sole discretion of Catholic Charities of Dallas as necessary.

All volunteers are expected to read and become familiar with the policies and procedures described in this handbook. Handbooks should be kept close at hand for ready reference and any changes or modifications should be noted and kept with your copy of this handbook. If there are points which are not clear or questions arise, volunteers should first ask their supervisors and then the Volunteer Coordinator for assistance.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

It is the policy of Catholic Charities of Dallas to provide equal opportunity to all applicants, volunteers and interns regardless of race, color, religion, age, sex, national origin, ancestry, military status, disability, or any other characteristic protected by law.

This policy reaffirms Catholic Charities of Dallas' commitment to principles of equality and fair consideration and treatment of individuals.

ORIENTATION

All volunteers are required to attend an orientation and safe environment training at a minimum. Some volunteer assignments require more detailed and program specific training.

ATTENDANCE/RECORDKEEPING

Catholic Charities of Dallas greatly appreciates and depends on the efforts of each and every employee and volunteer with their commitment to their assignment.

Your presence and prompt arrival for your scheduled shifts are absolutely necessary. It is your responsibility to let your supervisor know if you are unable to come into work. If your schedule must change, or you have an emergency, please contact your supervisor or the Volunteer Coordinator at 214-520-6590.

It is very important that all volunteers sign-in everyday to document their hours provided to the organization. These documented hours are required for a variety of reports.

CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CHECK

It is the policy of Catholic Charities of Dallas to perform a consumer report inquiry on employment applicants and volunteers. This is to ensure that applicants and volunteers who join the organization have a strong potential to be productive and successful, and to further ensure that the organization maintains a safe and productive work environment that is free of any form of violence, harassment or misconduct.

The consumer report is conducted through a Diocesan approved vendor called Accutrak. Consumer reports are kept confidential and will only be used in ways consistent with the requirements of federal law. Consumer reports are conducted during the initial application process and are updated periodically.

MINIMUM PERFORMANCE STANDARDS

It is the policy of Catholic Charities of Dallas to maintain a safe, productive environment free from harassment, or other inappropriate or disruptive behavior. It is the policy of CCD that certain rules and regulations regarding volunteer behavior are necessary to accomplish the organization's purpose and mission. Furthermore, certain rules and regulations are necessary for the efficient operation of the organization.

Volunteers are expected at all times to conduct themselves in a positive manner to effectively promote the work of Catholic Charities of Dallas.

Such conduct includes:

- To support and implement the mission, goals, and objectives of Catholic Charities of Dallas;
- To provide a sense of support and assistance to the community in the workplace;
- To treat all CCD clients, employees, board members, volunteers, interns and visitors in a courteous manner;

- To report to work punctually as scheduled and give proper advance notice if unable to work or report on time;
- To perform assigned tasks efficiently, professionally, and in accordance with established quality standards;
- To work cooperatively with Catholic Charities of Dallas' supervisors, employees and other volunteers and interns;
- To comply with all CCD rules, policies, and procedures as well as safety, health, and security regulations;
- To maintain a personal appearance consistent with a constructive and professional environment, and to maintain a clean and orderly workplace or area.
- To protect the confidentiality of clients and donors and share information about your work only with those who need to know;
- To avoid all inappropriate outside contact and fraternization with clients that does not fall within the scope of the volunteer job description/responsibilities.
- To not transport any client before, during, or after your volunteer assignment. Volunteers are prohibited from transporting clients.

PERSONAL APPEARANCE

Employees' appearance, including their dress and personal hygiene, has a direct impact on how the Company is perceived by our customers, vendors and the general public. In some jobs, certain items of apparel are essential as a matter of personal safety. An example of this is wearing reinforced toe shoes to prevent injury for drivers, maintenance employees, workers in food distribution sites, kitchen workers and thrift store workers.

Office personnel should dress in the attire that is appropriate for his or her job duties, which is generally business or business casual attire. Casual attire, such as shorts, skorts, cutoffs, mini-skirts (4" above the knee or shorter), jeans, overalls, sweatshirts and sweatpants, leggings and other tight clothing, sheer clothing, jogging or track suits, sundresses, strapless tops, halter tops, deep neckline tops, midriff-baring tops, spaghetti strap tops, and tank tops, are not to be worn in the workplace during business hours. Inappropriate shoes include slippers, flip flops/thongs, open toed shoes, sandals, spiked heels or heels more than 3" high. Jeans maybe worn on Fridays.

Hair (including facial hair) and nails should be clean, neatly trimmed and not extreme in style or color. Tattoos and body piercing (other than ears) must be covered when meeting with customers. Do not over-apply or use strong-smelling perfumes or colognes as they may cause respiratory problems for co-workers, especially in areas that are close or not well ventilated.

CULTURAL SENSITIVITY

Catholic Charities of Dallas serves thousands of clients from all religious faiths, races, ethnicities, cultures, nationalities and socioeconomic backgrounds every year. At CCD, we celebrate these differences and are committed to treating each person with dignity and respect. We ask that all volunteers come to serve with the same open heart and mind.

Not all CCD clients speak English. Some of our refugee clients have fled their country for fear of persecution or death. Here are some tips to help you communicate effectively.

If you come across a client during your volunteer opportunity who doesn't speak much English:

- Use simple words. Many clients are enrolled in English as a Second Language (ESL) classes and may understand a few words;
- Don't be afraid to ask a CCD employee if they can interpret, know someone who can, or when possible use a trained interpreter.

Boundaries

As you interact with the clients, be aware of boundaries. For your own safety, do not disclose personal information about where you live, or other identifying information to the clients.

We strongly discourage volunteers offering money, gifts, or other material items to our clients. If you feel strongly that you would like to personally help, please speak to the Special Project & Volunteer Coordinator about the appropriate way to assist the clients.

Photos

Volunteers are prohibited from taking any personal photos of any CCD clients. It is the sole responsibility of the volunteer to remove him/herself from the area in which photo/video is being taken.

JOB DESCRIPTIONS

Volunteer job descriptions are essential for the recruitment and placement of volunteers. The volunteer job description provides the volunteer with a clear explanation of their assignment. Each volunteer will receive a copy of the job description for their assignment.

PERFORMANCE EVALUATION/SATISFACTION SURVEY

Catholic Charities of Dallas appreciates feedback from the volunteers to improve the volunteer process or identify areas/procedures that need adjustment to ensure that best practice is used.

Volunteers will be given a 30-day feedback form to complete and long term direct service volunteers will be given an annual evaluation.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE

Volunteers are to familiarize themselves with all emergency exits and maps to ensure a safe evacuation from the building in the event of an emergency.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

Catholic Charities of Dallas is not responsible for the loss, theft or damage to your personal property while on company premises and while away from the premises on business. We suggest that you take precautionary measures to safeguard any personal valuables that you bring to work. Such items should not be left unattended or in plain view.

ANTI-HARASSMENT POLICY

Harassment of our employees by employees and any non-employees on the basis of an individual's color, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, race, ethnicity, national origin, color, age, religion, disability or any other legally protected characteristics will not be condoned. Slurs, jokes and insults related to these characteristics are inappropriate and violate Catholic Charities of Dallas' equal employment opportunity policy, and may also violate federal, state and local law. This policy prohibiting harassment of others applies not only to employees of Catholic Charities of Dallas but also to individuals that help serve the organization, including its volunteers, representatives, colleagues and other persons or groups with whom our employees have contact as representatives of Catholic Charities of Dallas.

Sexual harassment includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature by an employee or supervisor when (i) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment; or (ii) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual. Sexual harassment also includes conduct of a sexual nature that unreasonably interferes with an individual's work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment or otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment opportunities.

Comments or conduct that might be perceived as sexually offensive are to be strictly avoided. Examples of conduct that might constitute sexual harassment include, but are not limited to, repeated offensive or unwelcome sexual flirtations, advances, or propositions; continual or repeated verbal abuse of a sexual nature or graphic verbal comments about an individual's body; sexually degrading words used to describe an individual; or the display in the workplace of sexually suggestive objects or pictures.

Certain types of conduct which might be intended as inoffensive social exchanges can be perceived as offensive and may be used as a basis for harassment claims when they involve the protected characteristics listed above. While such conduct is not necessarily a violation of the law, it may violate our policies and lead to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment. The alleged harasser's opinion and intent related to the offensiveness of the harassing behavior provides no defense, under the law or under our policies.

COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

Catholic Charities of Dallas' complaint procedure provides for an immediate and thorough investigation of any harassment claim, appropriate disciplinary action against one found to have engaged in prohibited harassment, and appropriate remedies to any victim of harassment.

Employees who believe they have been harassed on the job or who are aware of the harassment of others in violation of this policy, must provide a written or verbal complaint to their own or any other Supervisor, Program Manager, Director, Director Human Resources, Chief Operations Officer or to the President/CEO as soon as possible.

All incidents of harassment that are reported will be investigated, regardless of their seriousness. Catholic Charities of Dallas or its designated representative will immediately undertake an effective and thorough investigation of the harassment allegations. The confidentiality of all complaints will be maintained to the extent possible while allowing Catholic Charities of Dallas to conduct a full and fair investigation and effect a proper remedy. After the investigation is completed, a determination regarding the complaint will be made and communicated to the employee(s) who complained and the accused harasser(s).

If Catholic Charities of Dallas determines that a violation of this policy has occurred, it will take effective remedial action commensurate with the circumstances. Appropriate action will also be taken to deter any future harassment.

DRUG FREE WORKPLACE POLICY

Drugs and Alcohol. CCD has a viable interest in maintaining safe, healthy and productive working conditions for its employees. Being at work under the influence of certain controlled drugs, illegal drugs and/or alcohol can pose serious safety risks to the user, co-workers, and others. This Drugs and Alcohol policy is meant to maximize workplace safety and efficiency, while respecting off-duty, legal conduct that has no adverse impact on job performance. With these basic concerns, the Company establishes the following guidelines:

- Violations:
Possession, sale, purchase, transfer, manufacture, distribution, use of or being under the influence of certain controlled substances, illegal drugs (including inhalants) or alcohol while on Company premises or performing Company business. Possession of drug-related paraphernalia is also prohibited.

Refusing to be tested, attempting to adulterate or adulterating a test, or testing positive for certain controlled substances, illegal drugs (including inhalants) or alcohol.

Failing to notify Human Resources if you are charged with driving a motorized vehicle under the influence or while intoxicated, while on Company business or on Company premises.

Failing to notify Human Resources if you are convicted under a criminal drug statute for a violation that occurred while on Company business or on Company premises.

Failing to notify Human Resources if you are charged and/or convicted with driving a motorized vehicle under the influence or while intoxicated, if you rent, lease or operate a motorized vehicle in the course and scope of your employment with CCD.

Exception for Legal Drugs — Use of prescribed and over-the-counter medications that have been legally obtained and are being used in the prescribed or directed manner do not violate this policy. If, however, the use of these substances adversely affects your ability to do your job safely or otherwise negatively impacts job performance, you must advise your supervisor before starting work. If the medication is having a negative effect on your ability to work, you may be required to take a leave of absence. If you bring prescribed medicine to work, you must bring it in the container provided by your pharmacy or physician, and bring only the amount you reasonably anticipate you will need to consume while on duty.

Exception for Unopened Containers of Alcohol — Possession of a sealed container of alcoholic beverage, while on Company premises or while performing Company business, does not violate this policy so long as the container remains unopened.

- Definitions:

Company Business. Any time an employee spends in the course and scope of his or her duties for the Company, occurring on or off Company premises, including time spent on the premises of a third party, traveling on Company business, attending work-related programs, and any other Company-related activity.

Company Premises. All Company-owned, leased or controlled buildings and office suites, including surrounding areas such as sidewalks, walkways, driveways and parking lots. Company vehicles and equipment, whether owned, leased or rented by or on behalf of the Company, or an employee while on Company business, are covered by this policy at all times.

Controlled Substances/Illegal Drugs. Any drug or controlled substance (as defined by federal law) which is illegal to sell, possess or consume without a prescription, or a prescribed or over-the-counter medication which is legally obtained but not being used by its intended user or in the prescribed manner.

Possession. Within the physical possession or control of the employee, including the employee's personal effects or vehicle.

Test, Tested or Testing. The use of scientifically recognized methods by federally certified laboratories to detect the presence of certain controlled substances, illegal drugs (including inhalants) and/or alcohol in the body of an employee.

Under the Influence. Employee has a controlled substance, illegal drug (including inhalants) or alcohol in his or her body in an amount that is detectable through testing.

- Methods of Testing:

Pre-employment. Applicants who receive a conditional offer of employment will be tested for drugs.

Post-Accident. Employees who are involved in an accident that involves injury to a person and/or damage to property while on Company premises or while on Company business will be tested for alcohol and/or drugs.

Reasonable suspicion. Employees who are reasonably suspected of being under the influence of drugs or alcohol may be tested. Reasonable suspicion is based upon the observations of a Company or third party manager, supervisor or employee when the observed employee demonstrates a reduced ability to perform work in a safe and productive manner, the odor of drugs or alcohol is detected, or drug paraphernalia is found in the workplace.

Random. Employees may be subject to random testing for drugs and/or alcohol as required by the Company and/or applicable law.

Follow-Up. Employees who return to work following substance abuse rehabilitation will be subject to unannounced drug and alcohol testing.

- Consequences of Policy Violation:

Any violation of this policy by an employee may result in corrective action, up to and including discharge from employment. The Company will protest the payment of unemployment and/or workers' compensation benefits to any employee discharged for violation of this policy.

There is no violation of this policy if an employee comes forward and seeks assistance with a substance abuse problem before being subject to reasonable suspicion testing or disciplinary action for unsatisfactory performance, absenteeism or other misconduct. The Company encourages employees to use available benefits (e.g., medical insurance, EAP) and leaves of absence to seek appropriate treatment. Reinstatement to employment following the leave will be contingent upon adherence to the recommendations of the treating physician, counselor, or both, and any terms contained in a last-chance agreement.

- Searches:

The Company may search any area on Company premises, at any time, for the presence of drugs, alcohol and/or drug paraphernalia. Employees agree, as a condition of continued employment, to consent to searches of areas and items on Company premises including but not limited to (1) their personal belongings, including but not limited to purses, backpacks, gym bags, briefcases and luggage; (2) their work areas, including but not limited to desks, cabinets, lockers, and storage areas; and (3) all vehicles and equipment. An employee who refuses to consent to a search will be subject to corrective action, up to and including discharge from employment.

- Treatment Programs:

The Company recognizes the benefit of early identification and intervention when dealing with substance abuse and encourages employees to use available benefits and leaves of absence to seek appropriate treatment. Treatment for substance abuse is provided through the Company's medical insurance program and employee assistance program ("EAP").

CONFIDENTIALITY

Confidential information is not to be discussed with or released to anyone outside the organization and should be discussed within the organization only on a "need to know" basis. Confidential information includes client information, committee records and the financial and operational affairs of Catholic Charities of Dallas.

Employees have a responsibility to avoid unnecessary disclosure of non-confidential internal information about Catholic Charities of Dallas. This responsibility is not intended to impede normal business communications and relationships but is intended to alert employees to their obligation to safeguard confidential information.

WEAPONS

No person may possess a weapon in any facility owned, leased, or operated by Catholic Charities of Dallas or in connection with any activity or function sponsored by Catholic Charities of Dallas, except as provided by this policy.

Any employee who is discovered to be in possession of a weapon in violation of this Policy or applicable law may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination, and will be asked to remove the weapon from the facility or activity and return only when they have removed the weapon.

Any non-employee who is discovered to be in possession of a weapon in violation of this Policy or applicable law will be asked to leave the facility or activity and return only when they have removed the weapon from the facility. Any Catholic Charities of Dallas volunteer who is discovered to have violated this Policy may be subject to further action, up to and including permanent exclusion from volunteer service within Catholic Charities of Dallas and the Diocese of Dallas.

State law requires organizations who wish to prohibit guns on-site to post specific signs at each place where persons enter facility property on foot or by car and at the entrance to each facility building containing the language below verbatim. Catholic Charities of Dallas has also posted the required signs at the entrance to large outdoor areas in which users frequently gather. Each sign contains all of the text listed below, is clearly visible, appear in contrasting colors (e.g., red text on a white background), and uses block letters at least one inch high:

Exceptions

This Policy is subject to the following exceptions:

1. This Policy does not preclude the possession of a weapon by an on- or off-duty municipal, state, or federal law enforcement officer.
2. This Policy does not preclude the possession of a weapon by an on-duty licensed security guard assigned to protect the security of persons and property pursuant to a written agreement and in compliance with Diocesan policies.

3. This Policy does not preclude the possession of a weapon secured in a locked compartment of a locked vehicle which is parked in or traveling through a facility parking area, provided that possession of the weapon otherwise complies with all applicable law. A weapon stored pursuant to this Policy should generally not be visible to or discoverable by a person other than the owner of the vehicle.

Definitions
